

Minutes for Compulsory Briefing session for Covid-19 response to food & nutrition security 8 March 2021 Microsoft Teams

Attendees: Mr Muzi Matsenjwa – BSC Member Mr Thami Ngwenya – BSC Member Ms Zibuyile Zulu – BSC Member Ms Nthabiseng Kraai – BSC Member Ms Bonisiwe Likuwane – BSC Secretariat Service providers

NO.	ITEMS	RESPONSIBLE
1.
1.1	Welcome and opening
	 Mr Matsenjwa opened the meeting. 	Mr Matsenjwa
	 Mr Ngwenya officially welcomed all those who joined the compulsory briefing session and presented the TORs. 	Mr Ngwenya
2.	Important Matters on the TORs
2.1	 Closing date for tender submission is 23 March 2021 at 12:00. A two envelope system will be used. Inclusion of content page is important Commercial Queries must be directed to Ms Elizabeth Mngxabashe or Mr Muzi Matsenjwa. Technical Queries to Mr Thami Ngwenya Bidders who wish to attend Tender Closing may do so at NDA's national office in Parktown. 	Mr Matsenjwa
	Meeting was adjourned at 11:15

Questions from the Service Providers Responses from NDA Are joint ventures allowed? Yes, must adhere to section 18.1 of the TOR. Furthermore, When bidding through a Joint Venture, the Joint Ventures must submit a Consolidated B- BBEE certificate which consolidates each participant's B-BBEE status level. Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience? Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience. What is the sample size required? Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence level Can the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months? No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum. Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitative No, the 344 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces. Will the administrative data be provided to bidders? Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa. Will the referencing be based on South Africars only or anyone who has received food parcels? The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.	QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
Furthermore, When bidding through a Joint Venture, the Joint Ventures must submit a Consolidated B- BBEE certificate which consolidates each participant's B-BEE status level.Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience?Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africas only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus g	Questions from the Service Providers	Responses from NDA
the Joint Ventures must submit a Consolidated B- BBEE certificate which consolidates each participant's B-BBEE status level.Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience?Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 and quantitativeNo, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for dod support of the poor in South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?Will the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is reitrely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Are joint ventures allowed?	Yes, must adhere to section 18.1 of the TOR.
BBEE certificate which consolidates each participant's B-BBEE status level.Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience?Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		Furthermore, When bidding through a Joint Venture,
B-BBEE status level.Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience?Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the stimuted population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africars only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		the Joint Ventures must submit a Consolidated B-
Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5 years' experience?Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		BBEE certificate which consolidates each participant's years' experience?insufficient experience and they are encouraged to submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africams only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		B-BBEE status level.
submit their bids, however, they will not attain points for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Will the NDA consider bidders that have less than 5	Yes, all bidders will not be disqualified due to for that particular section if they have less than 5 years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africas only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	years' experience?	insufficient experience and they are encouraged to years of experience.What is the sample size required?Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		submit their bids, however, they will not attain points
What is the sample size required? Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95% confidence level Can the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months? No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum. Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitative No, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces. Will the administrative data be provided to bidders? Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa. Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels? The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme. Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically? It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		for that particular section if they have less than 5 confidence levelCan the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		years of experience.
Can the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6 months?No, the duration of the study will not be extended and it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	What is the sample size required?	Minimum of 384 people, it must be calculated at 95%
months?it is strictly six months at maximum.Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative and quantitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		confidence level Does the 384 sample size include both qualitativeNo, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Can the study duration be extended or is it strictly 6	No, the duration of the study will not be extended and
and quantitativethe estimated population of 2 093 960 people within the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	months?	it is strictly six months at maximum.
the households that benefited from the food parcel distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Does the 384 sample size include both qualitative	No, the 384 is for quantitative only which is based on distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	and quantitative	the estimated population of 2 093 960 people within individuals from different households in nine provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		the households that benefited from the food parcel provinces.Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		distribution during COVID-19 lockdown. These are
Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?Yes, the NDA will request the data from the Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		individuals from different households in nine
Department of Social Development as the custodian for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		provinces.
for food support of the poor in South Africa.Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Will the administrative data be provided to bidders?	Yes, the NDA will request the data from the
Will the referencing be based on South Africans only or anyone who has received food parcels?The referencing for the sample will only be based on the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		Department of Social Development as the custodian only or anyone who has received food parcels?the households/individuals that were part of the food parcel distribution programme.Should the collection of data be face to face or electronically?It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		for food support of the poor in South Africa.
Should the collection of data be face to face orIt is entirely up to the bidders whether they conductelectronically?face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Will the referencing be based on South Africans	The referencing for the sample will only be based on
Should the collection of data be face to face or It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct electronically? face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	only or anyone who has received food parcels?	the households/individuals that were part of the food electronically? face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required		parcel distribution programme.
however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	Should the collection of data be face to face or	It is entirely up to the bidders whether they conduct proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) recordings will be required, no recordings are required	electronically?	face-to-face or the use of technology to collect data, recordings will be required, no recordings are required		however, this approach should be clearly stated in the proposal. Only interview/focus groups (qualitative) for quantitative.		recordings will be required, no recordings are required for quantitative.

Snowball sampling or chain-referral sampling	Key informants will be identified through the Department of Social Development Portfolio, using a snow bowling to identify key government officials, private sector officials and civil society representatives that have been providing food and nutrition support to households that have been provided support during the COVID-19 period. These will form part of the qualitative data collection process and is not part of the 384 sample size for food parcel recipients.

Chairperson: Mr Thami Ngwenya	SCM: Mr Muzi Matsenjwa
Signature	Signature
11/03/2021	11 March 2021
Date	Date